THOU SHALT NOT COVET

A Spectacular Drama in Five Acts. Will Be Shown at the Anderson.

Today.
In this picture will be shown the wreck of a liner in mid-ocean while thousands of women and children battle desperately for life.

Kathlyn Williams battles with an enraged copard. Bonafide scenes in Egypt and in darkest Africa will be shown.

The following describes some of the picture:
"As the great ship shivered and groaned, a live thing--I thought of my neighbor's wife. I rushed to her stateroom and there found her helpless. I gathered her into my arms and with her I leaped into the sea. When she awoke her mind was disarranged from the shock and she thought I was her husband. In her strange, mad passion she called me by her husband's name, and gave me all the love she had for him. In the jungle we made our home and she came to me as she had always come to her husband, and I prayed for strength in my hour of dire temptation."

And did the Man who really loved his neighbor's wife, overcome temptation? Did the woman, who later came to a realization of her situation again find the husband, so dearly loved, or did she succumb to Fate? View this wonderful, this unusual drama, and find the answer!
